About My Church Plant

Our Iglesia Bautista Vida en Cristo is planted in South Houston near NASA. We are a church that works with its community. We are working with children and helping newly arrived families in three apartment complexes. We also want our church to be involved in local missions and planting other churches.

We are an Hispanic church, but are open to reaching all the people around us.

Somos una iglesia que ama su comunidad, que esta trabajando en tres complejos de apartamentos con niños y familias inmigrantes.
