BLUEPRINT CHURCH

About the Family

We are Lynwood and DaNae Hurston. Lynwood was born and raised in Atlanta. DaNae has been in Atlanta for more than 30 years since moving here with her mom. We joined in marriage and as a blended family 2013.

Lynwood first sensed a call to serve within the local church in 1994. He began serving through teaching youth Sunday School lessons, teaching Bible studies, men's group leadership and leading home groups, community service projects, discipling men and serving on two church planting teams. The Lord further developed Lynwood's passion to serve and lead by guiding him and DaNae through completing the BLVD Cohort. Lynwood currently serves on the Blueprint Church Cares team.

DaNae began serving in the local church in 2009. Through this, she discovered her deep passion for serving women through discipleship and teaching Bible studies. In 2016, she earned her master's degree in church ministry and discipleship through Liberty University. DaNae currently serves on the Blueprint Church welcome team. Going through the BLVD Cohort, we discovered how the experience of God reconciling our past brokenness into a healthy blended family could be a connection point with our neighbors to re-present them to God's story, our story and their stories. God's family is one big blended family!

About My Ministry

We are shifting our efforts toward God's call for us to go into full-time ministry. We realize there are many families who suffer through oppressive life events and setbacks, such as loss of a family member, income, housing or even missing true support within the body of Christ. Working together, we come alongside families through discipleship. We will continue to align people with the gospel to help refine the family within the mission of God. We will be a bridge to cultivate an environment always pointing them to Christ because we believe it is never pointless to build trust, forgive often and love eternally. Second Corinthians 5:16-21 keeps us striving as labors in His harvest as we listen, learn and love one another so we can live life as new creations in God's family.
