BAPTIST COLLEGIATE MINISTRY AT OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

About the Family

I graduated from Sapulpa High School in 2011, and started at Oklahoma State University (OSU) that fall. Little did I know that I would learn a lot more than just my degree material in my time at OSU! As a freshman, I found my way to the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM), and there I found a community, a family and many of my lifelong friends. Through my time at the BCM, I learned how to walk with God in a way I never had before, and I learned many spiritual disciplines that would set me up for a life of following Christ. As my time at OSU began to end, I knew I wanted to pursue ministry as my next chapter, and I felt God leading me to stay on as staff at the OSU BCM, so I had the pleasure of starting my ministry adventure in May 2016. Since joining staff, I have gotten to do and learn so much, and I can't wait to see what God will do with the years to come.

About My Ministry

The Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) is an extension of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma that focuses on connecting with college students on campuses all around Oklahoma, including OSU. There are more than 25,000 students at Oklahoma State, with around 2,000 of those students being international students who represent more than 100 countries. The desire of the BCM is to connect with as many of those students as possible and walk alongside them as they develop into adulthood and make life decisions. The OSU BCM's focus is connection, training and mission. These goals are accomplished through evangelism, personal discipleship, leadership development, summer training programs and mission trips.

My responsibilities with the OSU BCM include being the women's facilitator, which means I am over anything related to our women's ministry including training, events and retreats. I am also the social media coordinator, so I oversee our various social media accounts and use them to promote our ministry. I also assist in training our leadership students, and I personally disciple women on campus.

PRAY.

Pray that I reach full funding, so I may be able to be fully engaged with what God is doing on campus. Pray that I can be faithful in my responsibilities with the BCM, as I share the gospel with students and raise up disciples. Pray that I can form good relationships with the students who are involved with the ministry.

PARTICIPATE

Join my team through financial support and prayer and receive my monthly newsletter so you can stay up to date on what God is doing at the OSU BCM.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant.
