CHURCH AT THE CROSS

About the Family

I have more than 27 years of ministerial life. As a teen, God spoke to my heart so I have dedicated my entire life, fully, to His service. So, still in Brazil, I prepared for five years in seminary to serve the Lord in the best way possible.

Today, my whole family and I are involved in church planting ministry with Brazilians. Hitherto, the Lord has sustained us and confirmed our call to serve Him.

About My Church Plant

I have invested every effort in the church planting process together with Brazilian immigrants here in Florida. Working with immigrants is a very difficult task, but God, who is the Lord of the Harvest, has given us wisdom, and every day we keep going, always working, obeying His will.
