GO CHURCH

About the Family

My journey has led me from full-time worship pastor, to church planter, to large established church pastor, to church planter again. What a ride! Currently, we are having a blast planting our second church with a huge vision for multiplication. Our plant is already planting again. We planted pregnant. Our son is our worship leader, and our daughter is a missionary with the International Mission Board. We miss her but couldn't be prouder as parents. To God be the glory.

About My Church Plant

I am excited about my plant, but even more excited about the network of churches we are planting. Multiplication has become my passion.
