DOGWOOD CHURCH

About the Family

I grew up in Texas, and then lived in the Nashville, Tenn., area for 12 years where I served in family and student ministry before moving to Georgia. My wife, Amy, and I been married since 2005, and we have two children.

I am a devoted Vanderbilt Commodore, Dallas Cowboy and Atlanta Braves fan.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed Community Services Chaplain with The Real Life Center of Dogwood Church. The Real Life Center is a local needs-meeting ministry committed to caring for each person we serve by helping them physically, emotionally, relationally, financially, mentally, and spiritually. Focusing on the spiritual care of those we serve is my primary role as Chaplain.

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for those in need in the South Atlanta area.
Pray that God would open up opportunities to share the gospel with the individuals we serve at the Real Life Center.

PARTICIPATE

Volunteer with us either individually or as a group. Conduct a local food or clothing drive. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about their ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.
