REDEEMER CHURCH

About the Family

My family and I worked alongside church plants in Germany and Ireland for around five years before God called us back to the States. Upon our return, we felt God pulling us to minister somewhere in the U.S. that was spiritually similar to the post-Christian Europe we had just left. God eventually led us and two other families to Vermont, which is where we currently live. We are in the process of preparing to plant a church in the city of St. Albans.

My wife, Kayla, and I love the great outdoors! Our favorite pastime is taking our son, Rowan, on nature walks and hikes. Kayla also enjoys cooking and having our neighbors over for dinner. I am an avid reader, loving everything from the Puritans to “Lord of the Rings.” Rowan, our 6-month-old, currently enjoys tummy time and playing with his stuffed octopus.

About My Church Plant

My wonderful family and core team and I have planted a gospel-proclaiming church in St. Albans, Vt. Our official launch date was October 3, 2021.

St. Albans is a beautiful city, but sadly it has a spiritually dark DNA. Only 46% of the population would consider themselves religious, while only between 1–5% would consider themselves Bible-believing Christians. Though the numbers are bleak, we at Redeemer Church are confident in the power of the gospel to save! Through getting involved in the community in various ways, hosting community group Bible studies, and our pre-launch Sunday morning services, we have seen the Spirit moving in mighty ways in this small city in Vermont!

We would love for you to come alongside us in our mission to see God's name glorified in St. Albans, Vermont, New England and the ends of the earth!
