Patrick is a police officer with the Saraland Alabama police department. We have five grandchildren: Oliver, Henleigh, Andrew, Thatcher and Anna Grace.

We have lived in Mobile, Ala., since August 1998. Diane is a teacher at Goodwill School for special needs children.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed hospice chaplain. I have been a hospice chaplain since September of 2006. I have served with Alacare Hospice and Comfort Care Hospice. Since March 2018, I have been a chaplain with Gentiva Hospice in Daphne, Ala. I provide spiritual and bereavement support to patients living the final chapter of their earthly lives. For some, I provide an opportunity to find a saving relationship with Jesus Christ; for others, I help them find confidence in and assurance of their salvation. For our patients' families, I help them find peace with their loved one's terminal illness and find the spiritual strength to live life's final chapter with their loved ones.

In addition to serving as a hospice chaplain, I provide pulpit supply for churches.
