WOOLMARKET BAPTIST

About the Family

I am a native Mississippian and served 12 years in the Mississippi Army National Guard. I also enjoyed a career as a law enforcement officer prior to surrendering to ministry.

I have a bachelor's degree from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and a Master's of Divinity from Liberty University. I have been married to the love of my life for 28 years, and we have three children. My son and his wife live in Daphne, Ala., and are expecting their first child. My daughter is married to a youth pastor and lives in Ocean Springs, and my youngest daughter is a high school senior. In my spare time, I love working on cars, watching Ole Miss Rebel football, hunting, lifting weights, reading, writing and traveling.

About My Ministry

I have been the chaplain at the Armed Forces Retirement Home in Gulfport, Miss., for the past 10 years. I also serve as a Naval Reserve Chaplain. In addition to this, I serve as an SBC-endorsed part-time hospice chaplain and bereavement coordinator for a local hospice company. I have pastored three churches in Mississippi and Georgia.

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains. Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.
