THE LIGHTHOUSE CHURCH

About the Family

I have been happily married to my lovely wife, Bolawa, for more than a decade. The Lord has graciously blessed our union with three wonderful children—Jemimah, David and Peniel. Together, we are committed to seeing lives transformed by the gospel and communities impacted through intentional discipleship, servant leadership and Spirit-led ministry.

About My Church Plant

I am a passionate church planter with a deep calling to shepherd and disciple God's people. My heart beats to see Christ known—not just in the church, but in the very heart and affairs of everyday life. With a shepherd's heart and a vision for multiplication, I walk alongside people, helping them grow in faith, discover their God-given purpose, and boldly step into what the Lord can do through them.

Whether planting churches from the ground up or nurturing growing communities of faith, my mission is to make disciples who live out the gospel, lead others, and reflect Christ wherever they are planted. I believe in raising leaders who are rooted in the Word, empowered by the Spirit and driven by love for God and others. I am called to win souls, to inspire people to follow Jesus and to nurture them in righteousness.
