SABBATH PEACE FELLOWSHIP

About the Family

We are a Messianic Jewish family, and I now serve as an evangelism catalyst for the North American Mission Board, serving through our Messianic congregation, Sabbath Peace Fellowship in Chugiak, Alaska.

My wife, Connie, our middle son, Joshua, and his wife, Samantha, serve our congregation as well. Our oldest son, Michael John, lives in Anchorage, and our youngest son, Joseph, lives in Sullivan, Mo.

We came up in 2013 from Wichita, Kan.

About My Ministry

Our ministry is to fulfill the command of bringing the message of Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek," to the state of Alaska. Our goal is to reach Jews and Gentiles with the message of the gospel where they are and build relationships in order to love and teach them by the Word of God. We also teach churches and individuals how to reach Jewish people with the truth of Messiah.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray as we reach out into the world, especially the Jewish communities, in and around Anchorage, Alaska, and wherever we are given an opportunity.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

PARTICIPATE

Connect as a Sending Church or a Supporting Church with our work. Commit to long-term missions support of this ministry. Be involved in supporting our family. Pray for us.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
