PRAY.

Pray for guidance on writing just the right words that will touch, help and lead disaster victims to the Lord.

Pray for disaster victims to have opportunities to read my e-book and have the gospel speak to their fearful hearts.

Pray for victims and their families who have been touched by the coronavirus. Pray that soon we will have a vaccine against the virus.

Pray that we recognize that the people who are isolating because of their age or health are people who are victims of the disaster.

Pray for stamina and longevity for ministry amidst attacks from the enemy.

Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.

Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.

About the Family

I have been married for 50 years. I have three children and four grandchildren ranging in age from 2 to 27. Education was my chosen field, and I taught in a variety of elementary, secondary and college classes. I ended my career as an education specialist for the National Archives.

I have a husband who encouraged me to teach, write and travel as opportunities arose. I have traveled to all 50 states. I went to China and South Korea as a teacher, Ethiopia and Nicaragua for missions and Iceland for fun.

About My Ministry

I am a disaster relief chaplain. My first disaster relief experience was in Houston with Hurricane Harvey. I have served as a chaplain for at least nine different disasters.

Now that I am isolated due to my husband's health and COVID-19, I writing an e-book called, "How to Trust in God During a Disaster."
