Mike Flanagan

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF WHITESBORO

About the Family

I have been married to my high school sweetheart, April, since 1986. We have three wonderful, adult children. We are in the great phase of grandparenting and love every moment of it.

About My Ministry

I have been serving as volunteer police department chaplain at the City of Whitesboro, Texas, since 2007. I also serve as a disaster relief chaplain through the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention. My joy is helping others through the ministry of listening, caring and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ through serving as police chaplain in our city and through Disaster Relief with our state convention.

I have been serving as pastor of First Baptist Whitesboro since 2005. It has been my joy to serve as a youth pastor, education minister and as pastor of four different local churches. I have served in associational and denominational ministries as well.

Find out how you can Pray.

Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
