MORRIS HILL CHAPEL

About the Family

Currently, I serve in the U.S. Army as an SBC-endorsed Battalion Chaplain. I previously served in the Republic of Korea Army. One valuable lesson I've gleaned from my military experience is the concept of "command and execute." Applying this principle, I am ready to execute any command from my God, as He remains my first priority, and I love Him with all my heart.

My wife, Eunju Kim, is a wise woman and a great cook. She loves and obeys God by acknowledging me as the head of our house. She is a great partner in my ministry.

My daughter, Harang Kim, is a creative poet. She loves to read and express her feeling and emotions with creative words.

Ruth is a talented athlete. When you see her Taekwondo kick, you will understand what I am saying.

My son, Abraham, is a happy boy. He is always smiling and talented at doing math.

About My Ministry

I serve as the battalion chaplain for 2-34AR, 1ABCT, 1ID, supporting about 500 soldiers. I fulfill three chaplain's competencies: nurturing the living, caring for the wounded and honoring the fallen.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel with the people I serve.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray I will grow in Christ-likeness and be filled with the Holy Spirit, bearing His fruit.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains. Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.
