THE SERVANT HOUSE

About the Family

I previously served in the the Republic of Korea Army. Now I serve in the U.S. Army Reserve as a chaplain. One thing I learned from the army is the concept of "command and execute." I am ready to execute any command from my God. God is my first priority. I love God with all my heart.

My wife, Eunju Kim, is a wise woman and a great cook. She loves and obeys God by acknowledging me as the head of our house. She is a great partner in my ministry.

My daughter, Harang Kim, is a creative poet. She loves to read and express her feeling and emotions with creative words.

Ruth is a talented athlete. When you see her Taekwondo kick, you will understand what I am saying.

My son, Abraham, is a happy boy. He is always smiling.

About My Ministry

I am serving the 341st Medical Battalion—about 800 soldiers—as a battalion chaplain. I serve them by providing chapel services and praying for them.

In difficult times, soldiers need someone to support, comfort and encourage them.

Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel with the people I serve.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray I will grow in Christ-likeness and be filled with the Holy Spirit, bearing His fruit.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains. Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.
