SAN JUAN COLLEGE CHRISTIAN CHALLENGE

About the Family

I've been serving alongside Christian Challenge, a college campus ministry, since I graduated from college in 2013. I have three siblings and six nieces and nephews.

About My Ministry

Farmington is located in the northwest corner of New Mexico near three large Native American Reservations. It saturated in Native American spiritualism and heavy Latter-Day Saints and Catholic influences. Our hope at San Juan is to be a source of "Truth, Love, and Roots" amidst the blend of belief systems.

In 2016, I was sent from Fort Lewis College to restart Christian Challenge at San Juan College in my hometown, Farmington, N.M. The Baptist Convention of New Mexico and I partner to reach this campus. Currently, I am the only staff member, but am looking forward to being able to add as God provides.

The DNA of this ministry is personal discipleship and relational evangelism. We provide a setting for both those who are seeking and Christian students to meet, question, search and discuss the Christian faith.

Find out how you can

- Pray.
- Participate.
- Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for the staff who remains at Fort Lewis: Josh, Jennifer, Michael, Aleksandr, Anna, Rachel H. Pray for faithful, available and teachable students who will reproduce. Pray for connections among the San Juan administration.

PARTICIPATE

Partner with us either as a church or as an individual by giving financial resources and prayer support, or volunteer time on campus to reach students.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant.
