

Naomi Paget

FIRST BAPTIST BELLVILLE

About the Family

I was widowed after more than 50 years of marriage to John Paget, who was CEO of Plumblin Consulting. I have two surviving children. Tod is a Houston firefighter and paramedic, and Aki is a public school teacher to special needs children. I have five grandchildren. Ty is a Dallas firefighter and paramedic, Brittany is a children's minister, Clayton is a Ph.D. student at Texas Tech, Ryan works in food services, and Cole is in the Texas A&M Corps of Cadets.

About My Ministry

As of January 2023, I have served 57 years in disaster relief with the American Red Cross, 40 years as a chaplain for SBC Disaster Relief and 30 years as an FBI chaplain. Today, I continue to deploy to disasters and other critical events, domestically and internationally.

I teach at Gateway Seminary and Denver Seminary as an adjunct professor and continue to teach through International Critical Incident Stress Foundation, Inc., K-LOVE Crisis Response Care, Crisis Plumblin and SBC churches and programs. My objective during this season of my life is to continue to equip others to provide ministry through disaster relief and crisis intervention.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray people will come to saving faith in Jesus
Pray more will become missionaries and chaplains

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families

PROVIDE

NAMB does not provide compensation for SBC endorsed chaplains. However, a general fund is available to receive donations in support of the ministry and pastoral care to SBC endorsed chaplains. To donate, please visit Support Chaplaincy (missionaries.namb.net/projects/full/chaplaincy).
