IMAGO DEI CHURCH

About the Family

Since I became a believer in middle school, God has given me a deep joy to love and serve the local church. After graduating from Anderson University, I moved to Wake Forest, N.C., to attend Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and pursue my M.Div. in preaching and pastoral ministry.

When I am not in class, I love paddle-boarding, going to the gym and playing pickleball with my friends.

About My Ministry

I will be primarily engaging students on college campuses within the Triangle Area. Our team will seek to build relationships with them through campus-oriented events in order to proclaim the good news of the gospel to them. I will also be spiritually encouraging college students within Imago Dei Church and coordinating multiple missions trips with them.
