REDEMPTION CHURCH

About the Family

Cheyenne and I got married in September of 2018. Shortly after that, God began to stir our hearts for church planting.

While exploring the possibility of international missions work, God opened a door for ministry in West Virginia. Through prayer and godly counsel, we began on the path to plant a church in Beckley, W.Va.

Cheyenne and I are both North Greenville University graduates. I am currently getting my Master of Divinity degree from Southern Seminary, and Cheyanne is working as an elementary school teacher in Beckley. We like to spend time outside together hunting and fishing or inside reading and watching movies. On any given day you can find me in the woods or at a coffee shop with friends, and you can find Cheyanne in the kitchen baking for her family and friends.

About My Church Plant

In August of 2021, Redemption Church launched. I am currently the planter and teaching elder at Redemption Church.
