

Rachel Swain

LAUNCH CAMPUS MINISTRY

About the Family

I became a Christian in the seventh grade when I learned the difference between religion and a relationship with Christ. Though raised by godly parents, I had spent years trying to earn salvation until I understood it came solely through Jesus's sacrifice. Since then, mentors have poured into my walk with the Lord.

At Purdue, I found a deep community through Launch, joined the leadership team and began mentoring freshmen. Despite feeling unprepared, the staff equipped and supported me well. Since graduating, I've worked full time at Chick-fil-A while serving as volunteer staff, mentoring girls, leading Bible studies and helping with outreach. I've grown to love walking with college students during this formative season of life as they seek truth and purpose.

About My Ministry

I am joining full-time staff at Launch in order to disciple and train college students so they can go onto their campus and into the world equipped to lead and disciple others to follow the Lord. I am mentoring and discipling girls wherever they are in their walk, from new believers to lifelong followers, as well as preparing our student leaders to go into the church body and their future workplaces with a better understanding of biblical leadership.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for my transition from a full-time job and part-time ministry to full-time ministry.
Pray for college students seeking discipleship and community on Purdue's campus, as well as other campuses around the country.
Pray for stamina and longevity for ministry amidst attacks from the enemy.

PARTICIPATE

Please keep Launch staff, volunteers and students in your prayers. You can join my support team as a financial and/or prayer partner. I would love to meet you and give you more information about what Launch is doing and my role in that!

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.