About the Family

Prior to establishing the ministry of Emergency Chaplains in 2008, I served for 10 years as pastor of administration and discipleship at Bethesda Baptist Church in Durham. I am a graduate of Danville (Virginia) Community College, Southeastern College at Wake Forest, Louisiana Baptist University and received my master's degree in biblical counseling from Master's International School of Divinity.

I have been married to Carter since 1986. We live in Durham with our son, Carl, and an amazing dog named Gracie. We are members of The Summit Church.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC endorsed public safety chaplain. Additionally, I serve as the executive director and lead chaplain for emergency chaplains. Emergency chaplains exist to turn those in crisis toward Christ. To accomplish this, we minister to law enforcement officers, medics, firefighters and 911 communicators while working side-by-side with them to care for people in crisis.

I also work with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina seeking to increase participation in the area of public safety chaplaincy.
