WESTSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I was married for 21 years. I have a daughter, Catie who is 21. I am very passionate about Jewish missions and teaching and understanding the Jewish roots of the Christian faith.

About My Ministry

I have been in ministry for close to 30 years. I have served as a chaplain for most of that time, though I did serve as a youth and music minister on a church staff for a couple of years.

Most of the time I served as a chaplain for the U.S. Navy, Hargrave Military Academy in Virginia, where I also taught Old and New Testaments. Currently, I serve as an SBC-endorsed chaplain for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. I have served on the Michael and Boyd Prison Units, and I am now the Regional Chaplain for Region 1.

I also serve as the minister of music for the church where I am a member. I am on the executive board of the Southern Baptist Messianic Fellowship.
