SOWER CHURCH

About the Family

I am the second oldest of seven kids in my family. I am currently engaged to my fiancée, and we are planning to get married in March of 2023. We are both very excited to take this next leap and glorify God within our marriage.

About My Ministry

I began working in college ministry when I was a junior in college. I came on as an intern with the church where I currently work. After I graduated in May of 2021, I decided to come on full-time with the college ministry here at Sower Church. I wear many hats, but my main responsibilities are as missions coordinator for our ministry and the many different discipleship groups I oversee.
