PISGAH BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I'm married to my best friend, Christopher, and we have two beautiful children. I have a background in education and currently homeschool our daughter. I accepted salvation through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ at 26 years of age, which has been the greatest decision of my life. My hobbies are camping, baking, gardening and journaling.

My spiritual gifts include encouragement, prayer, discernment and evangelism. I enjoy singing many types of worship and praise music and adore being in fellowship with my church family.

About My Ministry

Our ministry is named Sparrow. We began this as a family outreach focused on the homeless, those living inside the shelters, and those who are accessible to us, wherever that may be. We prepare "blessing bags" to use as an offering to show love to those in need while sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ with them. Sparrow is about putting the hands and feet of Jesus in motion, remembering that if He cares for the sparrows, how much more does He care for us?

We pray with and for the people we are blessed to meet. We accept donations for the materials that go inside the bags. It is our prayer that our ministry will grow through the power of the Holy Spirit, and we will be able to advance the kingdom of God, for His glory.
