About the Family

I was born and raised in New Mexico. I am a third-generation Christ follower and third-generation Hispanic. I grew up in a blended culture and am fluent in both Spanish and English. Being bilingual enables me to bridge the gap between Hispanic, Anglo and other ethnic groups. I was born into a family of musicians, raised to worship and am blessed with musical ability. I fell in love with the church at a young age and am grateful for the opportunity to use all my gifts to minister.

I have served various churches in different capacities and am passionate about multiplying the kingdom through church planting. I am thrilled to take part in transformation and reconciliation in my community. I anticipate God's next big move in my life and am excited to see what He will surely do in this season of my life.

About My Church Plant

Generation Church seeks to be a multi-generational and multicultural body of believers. We seek to go deeper together in relationship with Christ and with one another. We seek to be used to gather, grow and multiply believers, not just in our generation but all generations.

I am currently planting in Farmington, N.M., and building up a core group. Our launch date is set for late summer 2021.
