About the Family

Katie and I have been married since 2001. We have a 7-year-old girl and a 5-year-old boy. God has deeply blessed our marriage and graced us with joy in our children.

Katie is a graduate from Dallas Baptist University and is now a professional brand strategist while juggling being a full-time mom. She enjoys sharing the gospel daily with our children and guiding them to develop as healthy children and inspiring them to learn about the world around them from a Bible-centered worldview.

We live in a small, quiet neighborhood in Rancho Bernardo, Calif.

About My Ministry

I love the calling God has placed on our lives! Finding peace and purpose by serving the men and women volunteers of the sea services has been the richest ministry in which I have ever taken part. I have been command chaplain on LPD-23, NASC, deployed with the Marines of VMM-163(REIN) and now serve the Maritime Expeditionary Security Group 1 in San Diego.

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary prepared me to minister in an environment of beliefs, religions and cultures that do not match up with the Bible. I see chaplaincy as a missionary ministry; we identify the people group, learn their language, wear what they wear, go where they go and assimilate into their culture without compromising the cross of Christ.

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

For boldness to share the gospel as I interact with people.
For receptive hearts among the people in my community.
For people to come to saving faith in Jesus Christ.
For the Lord of the Harvest to send more workers into the field to join missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Chaplains serve as an extension of the local church in places that other church members and staff sometimes cannot go. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Support and pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

NAMB does not provide compensation for SBC endorsed chaplains. However, a general fund is available to receive donations in support of the ministry and pastoral care to SBC endorsed chaplains. To donate, please visit Support Chaplaincy (missionaries.namb.net/projects/full/chaplaincy).
