DWELL CITY CHURCH

About the Family

Julia and I were married in 2008. We have served in ministry together both overseas and stateside for more than 20 years. I served in the Air Force as a pilot for 13 years where I first sensed God's call into vocational ministry. Throughout my military career, my family and I were able to experience God's work in many different cultures and people groups. In order to be of most service to the local and global church, I completed and M.Div. and Ph.D. in systematic theology from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Julia has a master's degree in professional counseling and a master's degree in school counseling.

We have three children: Hannah, Jacob and Micah. We enjoy meeting new people, engaging people with the good news of Jesus, writing music, traveling and trying new restaurants.

About My Church Plant

Dwell City Church exists to declare and demonstrate new life in Christ in order to be a blessing to the nations. Our vision is to be a light for the nations, a community rich in faith and abundant in love, bringing the good news of Jesus Christ for the joy of all peoples.

Our name comes from Psalm 107, which speaks about lost people wandering in the desert with no city in which to dwell. But when they cried out to God for deliverance, He heard their cry and led them by a straight way until they reached a city to dwell in.

We recognize ourselves as being empty, lost without hope and having no place to truly belong. Yet we called upon the Lord, and He heard our cry and redeemed us, filled us with joy, and gave us a forever family. We now dwell together and call out to others to come experience the joy we have found in Christ.

PRAY.

Pray God's guidance and wisdom will lead us every step of the church planting process. Pray we will trust in Him alone. Pray for unity among the core team members and a shared vision for the church. Pray for unity among the core team members and others in the community. Pray for favor with the local community leaders and opportunities to connect with people who are disconnected from God. Pray for provision of resources needed for the church plant, both financial and practical. Pray for boldness and courage to share the gospel with others. Pray for protection against spiritual attacks and obstacles that may arise. Pray for the spiritual growth and maturity of everyone involved.

PARTICIPATE

Come: Be present with us. We enjoy your fellowship and encouragement.
Pray: We firmly believe in the power of prayer and ask for your commitment to stand with us in prayer daily.
Give: We value your commitment to give either single gifts or recurring gifts as we move toward self-sustainability.
Serve: We welcome mission teams and those interested in physically helping us engage our city with the gospel.
Advocate: Help us spread the word.
