

Suresh Sammangi

INDIAN COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

I was raised in India in a completely Hindu society, but Jesus saved me in 1997 through the ministry of a local pastor. After that, I sensed a calling to ministry and left everything to follow this calling and be theologically trained in the United States in 2007.

I hold an undergraduate degree from Temple Baptist College and an M.Div. from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. I am married to Anitha and have two sons, David and Zach. In 2014, I moved my family to Boston and planted a church for Asian Indian people.

About My Church Plant

There are about 85,000 Asian Indian people living in the Greater Boston area with no evangelical church specifically for them. Indian Community Church is the first evangelical church for them.

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for the 85,000 Indian people in the Greater Boston area.
Pray the Indian Community Church will grow healthy and that I will be able to preach the gospel to unreached Asian Indians.
Pray individuals and partner churches will come alongside us.

PARTICIPATE

Connect as a Sending Church or a Supporting Church with our work.
Commit to long-term missions support with your missionary partner.
Be involved in supporting missionaries and their families.
Pray for missionaries.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.