MERCY CHURCH

About the Family

I married my high-school sweetheart, Ashley, in May 2005. We have four children. I work full time at the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association and am a founding member of Mercy Church in Charlotte, N.C. I am motivated by the gospel and pray daily that my life will be used to reach the lost, disciple the found and help suffering people. That heart is what led me to join the Air Force as a Reserve chaplain.

My hobbies include hiking, writing, reading, traveling and spending time with my family.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed, Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA) Reserve Chaplain, 4th Fighter Wing, at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base (AFB), North Carolina. I support the Wing Chaplain and the Deputy Wing Chaplain through providing pastoral care to the 22,000 military members, civilians and dependents of the Seymour Johnson Air Force Base community.

I ensure the protection of the constitutional right for the free exercise of religion and foster the practice of faith through religious programs and guidance. Responsibilities can include preaching at chapel services, providing confidential counseling, meeting all readiness requirements, and helping lead events designed to reach out to all Airmen and their families.
