GOSPELIFE CHURCH

About the Family

I grew up in Toledo, Ohio. I studied at Moody Bible Institute and have always had a call to ministry and proclaiming God's Word. I formerly spent six years in middle-market management within the financial industry and various financial institutions. I have 13 years of experience pastoring students and families.

I previously served as pastor of student ministries at Gospelife Church for three years. I was recently appointed campus pastor of Gospelife Church in Carol Stream, Ill. I live in Wheaton, Ill., with my wife and two children.

About My Church Plant

I serve as the lead planter and revitalization campus pastor. We merged with an older church two years ago that had serious trouble maintaining members and growing. They had a mission that was very strong and fit the needs of the community but didn't have the right people or processes in place.

Although we are a multi-site church, I have the great opportunity to preach live each Sunday, develop teams and lead our people with clear vision and mission.
