Randy and Sarah Harvey

ST. ROSE COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

I met my beautiful wife, Sarah, when we were both college athletes at Tulane University. Sarah played beach and indoor volleyball, while I kicked for the football team. Sarah then coached Tulane's indoor volleyball team for four years while we both volunteered for an on-campus athletic ministry, Athletes in Action (AIA), and became members at St. Rose Community Church.

In 2022, I joined staff at our church, began seminary in New Orleans, and Sarah stepped away from coaching to pursue full-time ministry at Tulane. In the midst of our ministry pursuits, we began dating and got married in July of 2023.

Today, I am joining Sarah to do full-time college ministry at Tulane. We both are burdened for athletes, coaches, staff members and local New Orleanians to come to saving faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

About My Ministry

The number of college students and local residents in Uptown New Orleans who don't know Jesus is overwhelming, but the mission field is ripe. In the athletic department alone, there are students from all over the world. By giving all our time and resources to serve this neighborhood, we have an opportunity to bring the gospel to the nations in our very own backyard.

Our aim is to win students to Christ through teaching them God's Word, engaging with them in personal discipleship and getting them plugged into healthy local churches.

Our prayer is that this college ministry will lay the foundation for a church plant in Uptown New Orleans. The Lord has been so faithful to open up doors for gospel work in this city. We would love to see a thriving community of Christ followers worshipping King Jesus here for generations to come.
