

Thomas (Doc) Marshall

STEWARTSVILLE BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I was saved in April of 1962 on a Sunday morning in Silver Spring, Md. I had been in church since I was 3 years old, and that morning while sitting in a youth choir, I realized that I needed Jesus Christ as my Savior.

I have been in ministry for more than 40 years. I have been married to a wonderful lady named Linda for 49 years, have three grown daughters and the four greatest grandchildren in the world. Their names are Deborah (Kevin) Poole, Joy (Joel) Guelzo, and Grace (Chris) Straight.

I am also a site coordinator with the chaplaincy of the North Carolina Baptist Disaster Relief ministry and serve as an interim pastor. The books I have written can be found on Amazon.com under Dr. Thomas Marshall.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed disaster relief chaplain serving with the North Carolina Baptists on Mission Disaster Relief team.

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.

Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.

Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

Pray for those who are impacted by the disasters in our state, nation and world.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains.

Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.
