THE LOCAL CHURCH

About the Family

Originally I was born in Richmond, Va., and lived in Bowling Green, Va., for 22 years while attending school in Fredericksburg, Va., and Lynchburg, Va. In 2007, I moved to Miami for a ministry calling. While in ministry I met my wife, Kristin, and we were married on September 10, 2011 (or 9/10/11 @ 12pm).

I was ordained into ministry at Christ Fellowship Miami and have served in various ministry capacities in Miami over the past 14 years.

Kristin and I have one daughter, Selah Nevaeh, who is our "Breath of Heaven," as God finally saw fit to bless us with her after years of infertility while we were preparing for fostering licensure.

We love Miami and are passionate about making disciples in this region.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed chaplain and ministries coordinator for Miami-Dade Corrections and Rehabilitation. Miami-Dade Corrections and Rehabilitation is the largest jail system in the state of Florida and the seventh largest jail system in the United States.
