REDEEMER CITY CHURCH

About the Family

My wonderful wife and I were married in May of 2015 and have two children—a 7-year-old boy named Judah and a 4-year-old girl named Cadence. My wife and I are both from Missouri and met in 2011 at a Christian youth summer camp the year before I started college. We dated all through college where I attended Southwest Baptist University, and this spring will have been married for 10 years.

My wife is a teacher at the Christian school our children attend and is interviewing to teach in Knoxville as well.

About My Church Plant

Through pastoral ministry and a commitment to servant leadership I strive to declare and display the one true gospel: to help others encounter the one true God, to lead the church in praise and worship of Him, and to nurture their spiritual development so they might treasure Him above all things. Put simply, my desire is to point others to Christ so they both seek Him as the Savior of their souls and submit to Him as the Lord of their life.
