

Troy Walker

MOSAIC CHURCH PROVO

About the Family

My wife, Janis, and I met while we were attending Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and got married in 2016. We moved to Utah immediately after I graduated in 2017 and have been here since.

We have two daughters, Sadie and Eden.

Janis is currently pursuing an M.A. in Christian Counseling. On a day off you will typically find us outside hiking, working on hobbies, such as woodworking or leatherworking, or fixing something on our house.

About My Church Plant

We have served as bivocational missionaries in Utah since June of 2017. At Mosaic, I oversee discipleship, pastoral care, outreach and cultural engagement, as well as preaching and leading worship regularly. My passion is for equipping and enabling the church to engage the culture evangelistically. Janis's passion is for counseling. She has a growing heart for women who have been in abusive relationships.

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for our family.
Pray for God to bring persons of peace, who are receptive to the gospel.
Pray for the evangelistic relationships that we are currently engaged in.
Pray for God to continue to grow Mosaic Church, both in numbers and in love and unity.
Pray for Provo to become a stronghold of the gospel and not one of the Mormon church.

PARTICIPATE

Please reach out through text or Facebook. We would love to connect with you! We have a Facebook prayer group that we would love to invite you to join.
We also love hosting missions teams, so if you would like to discuss that possibility please let us know.

PROVIDE

Learn the church plant, its strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources.
Support a church planter financially.