ONE COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

Erin and I have been married for 10 years and have three wonderful kiddos: Ellie Grace, Tucker and Addilyn. For the majority of our marriage, we worked in vocational ministry, primarily in Memphis, Tenn., and in the Washington, D.C., metro area. If you're looking for us, we are probably watching a baseball game, playing in the park or eating yummy food.

About My Church Plant

In fall, our family will be moving to New York City to serve alongside a young church, One Community Church, who serve and worship together in the Hell's Kitchen neighborhood in Midtown Manhattan.

Hell's Kitchen has a long history as a challenging neighborhood. In some sense, the name Hell's Kitchen says it all. It has been a place that is both notorious and generative in terms of the culture it has produced. Although many see the neighborhood as a location, not a home, and as a place to commute to versus a place to commit to, One Community Church (OCC), seeks to challenge and change this reality by modeling an incarnational presence. One Community Church aims to serve the community for the long-haul, embracing Hell's Kitchen as home and being missionaries who are found in the fabric of the community.
