THE WHY CHURCH

About the Family

I am a widowered father of three grown kids (one daughter and two sons) and four grandkids, all of whom are boys.

I serve as associate pastor, worship leader and Sunday School teacher for adults at Wilderness Baptist Church in Vernon, Ariz. I am bivocational. I am self employed and work as a courier.

About My Church Plant

I am associate pastor at Wilderness Baptist Church (Sending Church), as well as Sunday School teacher and director and worship leader. God has called me into church planting. He has shown me an area to plant where the need is great. He has also given me a three-fold message to take to the very rural and diverse community around the area we call the "Y." That message is hope, evangelism and prayer.

What the world needs now is HOPE! True hope is found in Christ, which leads to another point; the body of Christ needs to recenter around the mission of evangelism, disciple making and prayer. God has called me to reach as many folks as possible with this message. It is ALL about Jesus and many folks around the world need to know there is hope.
