MILL CREEK CHURCH

About the Family

My name is William Galloway, and I am married to my darling wife, Kaitlyn. Together we have two energetic little girls entrusted to us by God.

We live on a small family farm with goats, chickens, ducks, cats, dogs and a big ol' pig named Hank!

Together we enjoy running our small business and spending time as a family—wherever that adventure might take us!

About My Ministry

My ministry begins at home as a faithful husband and father, living the call before my family. In the church setting, I currently serve the Lord as the senior pastor at Mill Creek Church in Winnabow, N.C. My ministry here is focused on combatting stagnation and hypocrisy within the local church while also fostering a passion for discipleship and revitalization.

I also have the privilege of serving as a 2LT, SBC Chaplain Candidate in the U.S. Army Reserve where, as a part of a four-person Unit Ministry Team, I provide and perform religious services to the men and women in uniform.

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for Jesus to be glorified in every aspect of our ministry.
Pray for wisdom and discernment to minister as opportunities are provided.
Pray for people to desire Jesus above all else.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains. Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.
