About the Family

Hello! My name is Wyatt Hebblethwaite and that gorgeous woman in the picture with me is my wonderful wife, Rachael. I am the second oldest of four. My brothers are awesome, and I never see them enough. I also have two of the best parents in the whole world. They are military service personnel who have supported me my entire life and really pushed me to become self-supporting, independent and responsible as I went through college.

Rachael and I are high-school sweethearts and, though college was initially rough for both of us, we grew to trust God and one another like never before. She helps add structure to my life while also being someone with whom I can make jokes, watch movies and dance.

About My Ministry

College ministry is my passion. If not for a student leader from the Baptist Collegiate Ministry at the University of Oklahoma (OU) who invested in my life my first year there, I would be dramatically different. God used trained disciple makers to show me what it means to be discipled and to disciple others. God got hold of my life. When the question of what I wanted to do after college came up, I only knew I wanted to make disciples. God opened the door of collegiate ministry to me one day as I rode with my director, and he asked me if I had ever thought about college ministry. I was sold and decided that if this is really what God wants for me that He would make it really clear. My passion has been reinforced time and time again. I am excited to raise support so other people can be part of what God has set before me!

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
