PRAY.

Pray for the safety and salvation of our troops and leaders.
Pray for receptive hearts among the people in communities where I serve.
Pray people will come to saving faith in Jesus Christ.

Pray the Lord of the Harvest will send more workers into the field to join missionaries and chaplains.
Pray there would be peace in our land.

PARTICIPATE

Chaplains serve as an extension of the local church in places that other church members and staff sometimes cannot go. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain in one of the many settings where chaplains bring gospel ministry with compassion and convictional kindness. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

NAMB does not provide compensation for SBC endorsed chaplains. However, a general fund is available to receive donations in support of the ministry and pastoral care to SBC endorsed chaplains. To donate, please visit Support Chaplaincy (missionaries.namb.net/projects/full/chaplaincy).

About the Family

My wife, Gina-Lou, and I met on the mission field at an orphanage in Haiti in 2015—a foundation that continues to shape our lives today. We are both proud Americans of Haitian descent who speak Crenglish (a casual mix of Haitian Creole and English) in our home.

God has blessed us with three beautiful children—NaNou (6), Zachi (3), and Gracie (18 months). Above all, we are dedicated to raising them to know and love Jesus and to find joy in serving the church. When we aren't at home playing in our yard, you can usually find us playing soccer, exploring the local library, or enjoying the beauty of nature together as a family.

About My Ministry

Ministry starts at home, with my wife and kids; it manifests itself in how we seek to walk in obedience to the Lord, in our family devotionals, and in how we apply Scripture to our daily lives. Every spiritual habit we attempt to form is by the power of the Holy Spirit and for the glory of God. Outside my home, I serve as a deacon in my church; most of my service involves caring for our widows and the needy. I also take advantage of preaching opportunities that are offered to me by our local churches and the campus pastor at our local university.

Finally, I am able to minister through my work as a hospice chaplain and an Army Reserve Chaplain. I look for opportunities to offer comfort, support, and to share the gospel of Christ!
