CHRIST BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I am one of nine children. I have seven sisters and one little brother. Being the oldest boy in such a large family brings on a lot of responsibilities, but I believe the Lord has walked me through that in preparation for serving on the mission field.

About My Ministry

As the outreach coordinator for Northern Kentucky University's Baptist Collegiate Ministry, I strive to connect students with outreach opportunities on and off campus. Ministry is my passion, and I look to share that with students and give them the resources they need to experience all walks of ministry during their college career. I wish to build a culture of ministry and outreach and have students discover their calling for the mission field.
